

Come Rest Your Head

(c. 1990's)

If you got troubles, torment and grief
Come rest your head in my heart
It's my firm belief
That it's loving that heals all the anguish and turmoil inside
Don't need to shy away, oh baby
Don't need to retreat, or give up or hide
Come to me darling
You so uncertain soul
I swear that I'll wrap my arms around you
And I'll warm you from the cold
Come here sweet baby
Don't need to hesitate with me
I said I've got lots of what you want
And so much more of what you need
If your heart's been aching
And you only wish you'd die
Don't waste another minute
Come quick to my arms
'Cause I've got a safe and secure surprise
I know you thought there was nothing to count on
But what you got left to lose?
So if you feel it
And you're ready
Come baby
Come on and reach out to me

If you've got trouble, torments and grief
Come to little mama
For sweet, everlasting relief
If you got pain
And you just don't know what to do
Come here
'Cause this little woman
Wants to help to pull you through
Say oh, this little woman
Wants to make love with you

I want to hold you
I feel you
Come near me
I'm coming to you
Guess what I'm gonna do?
Open wide
Don't need to hide
Open up wide
There's no need to hide
At last we can rest
At last we can rest

---Vocal improv---

At last we can rest
At last we can rest

---Vocal improv---

Spoken:

But baby, oh look here, better read the 'Warning' label on the pack,
"If you're a heart health hazard, she'll just have to send you back
If you don't know how to treat her and don't appreciate her
It's too late for her
To mess around with you
'Cause she's she's been hurt too
And she's got too much to do"

But if you want to give her your loving
Come on rise to it brother
If you know how to be sweet to her
And won't dare deceive her
And you move from your heart
Then let's start
'Cause if it's true
She's ready for you
If you're for real
She'll tell you how she feels

Sing:

I want to hold you

I feel you

Come near me

I'm coming to you

Guess what I'm gonna do

Open wide

No need to hide

Open up wide

No need to hide

At last we can rest

--- Improv ---

At last we can rest

--- Improv ---

At last we can rest
