

Down To Basics

(1990's)

Hey little one
What do you really need?
I need to dance
I need to sing
I need to love
And sleep
And eat
Hey little bit
What are your necessities?
I need some arms
To wrap me tight
To hold
And roll me through tonight
Hey sweet child
What do you desire?
A tender lover
To inspire
Play wild
But fair
With my fire
To move me good
And smooth
And full
And strong
To love me ooh just right
To incite
And excite
And delight
My appetite
To touch me
Like I'm special
A most precious treasure
Share with me
This potent joy
And sweet
Abundant pleasure
Joined together
Wrapped
Entwined as one
Sources
Cells
And souls

We've begun
I've heard the stories told
The ecstasy unfolds
As he gives me
All he knows he's got
Then finds a whole lot more
Till we moan
And we scream
And we wail
And we soar
But they say
Hey little one
Tell us
What are your needs?
I need a kind
And honest man
So I can be safe
And free
To open up
My heart
With no need
For fear
Or doubt
To let the love
And joy
And power
All rush in
And rush out
But they say hey sweet child
What are your necessities?
I need a tender love
To wrap me tight
To hold
But they say
Come on little bit
What do you Really need more?
I need to dance
And sing
And love
And moan
And scream
And wail
And soar!
