

Some Damn Man

(1990's)

Someone say something
I'm writhing
I'm shaking
Someone say something
I can't stop this aching
From overtaking me
This convulsive
Chronic quaking
In my chest
Without rest
So obsessed
All upset
Over some damn man
Over some damn man

Someone say something
Quick if you can
Someone say something
I need words
Or a hand
To help steady me through
'Cause I'm not sure what to do

Someone say something
I'm in trouble
And can't shake it
Someone say something
I don't know how I'll make it
Through this hole
That's burning
Constantly in my heart
This storm
That's turning me
All about
And apart
And upside down
And inside out
In fragmented pieces
And disjointed parts

This inane preoccupation
Insane infiltration
Into my potential
Peace of mind
Which presently
I swear
I cannot find

Someone say something
Before it's too late
Someone say something
I can't wait
Cannot wait

Someone say something
Brilliant
If you can
Someone say something
I need words
Or a hand
'Cause I don't know what to do

Someone say something
Please
Quick if you can
I'm going fucking insane
Over some damn man
Over Some Damn Man!
