

Somebody Dreamed

(1980's)

Somebody dreamed
About another way
Somebody dreamed
About a very kind
And tender way
Of reaching out
To one another
Somebody held her head up high
Despite their dubious denial
And destruction
Of her natural
And naked
Nature
Their abuse
And violations
Of her very vital
Body
And being
Her very vital
Body
And being
Somebody wondered
About miracles
To heal
Somebody tested the waters
To see
Just how far
We could stray
And drift ashore
Without ever even reaching
The other side
Of this flood
Of human failings
Damn it
We're drowning
Daddy
Can't you save us
Or something?

Somebody dreamed
About another way
Somebody dreamed
About a very kind
And tender way
Of reaching out
To one another
Somebody held her head up high
Though she wanted to die
Somebody wondered
About miracles
To heal
Somebody held her head up high
Though she really wanted to die
Somebody dreamed
About a very kind
And tender way
Of reaching out to one another
