

You're Like The Sun Came Out

(1990's)

You're like the sun came out
You're like the sun came out
Like after a thousand
Continuous
Endless
Relentless
Long Icelandic winters
Strung together
Without relief
You're like the sun came out
Like a fountain of joy in life
Making me laugh so good
So long
So full
Striking chords that ring
With hysterical clarity
And truth in laughter
Making me roll for hours
Remembering long after the conversation's over
And we hung up
And I'm still curled up in a ball
Convulsing
Smiling
Laughing
Filled with it all
And so grateful for your being
And you being alive
At the same time as I

You're like a spark
Of brilliant light shining through
Permeating the atmosphere
And my heart and belly
Painting it
Washing it
Submerging it
Inundating it
With the sweet medicine
Of potent healing joy
My smile spreading
Without limits
Edges softening

And disappearing You're like the sun came out finally
Finally you're like the sun came out

And if things were different
Man
I could go crazy over you
If I let myself
I could lose all control
All molecules might rearrange themselves
You wouldn't know where the air

And my body
And the ground
Each let off
And the other began
Man
If things were different
I could go crazy over you
You're like a burst of sunshine
And fresh air
That makes me feel so good
And so happy to know you

You're like the sun came out
After the whole world had been stuck
In hopeless
Desperate struggle
And mourning forever
You're like the sun came out
All over
And all inside my chest
And everywhere
You're like the sun came out
Spreading joy
And sweet wise laughter
Abundantly
You're like the sun came out
You're like the sun came out

Man
You're like the sun came out
You're like a dream came true for once
Like an artist's well and reservoir

A palette of living
Breathing
Pulsing
Primary colors
And combinations
With the richness of all textures
Tones
And hues
In profusion
Sprayed with ease
And abandon
Across the skies
With diverse dimension
Expanding full spectrum
To brighten everyone's drab
And doomed mood
Of gloom
With a glimmer
Of fire
Of the fountain
Of life-blood
Flowing
Again finally Moved
From stagnant
To surging
With joy
And energy
At last

You're like a deep full breath
Of honest mountain air
A startlingly crisp
Courageous
Creation
In the force
Of a mighty
Magnetic
Rushing river
Without hesitation
Fear or restraint

Like the cleansing magnificence
Of the powerful
Turquoise awesome ocean
And like sweet tropical fruit
Ripe
Juicy
And generous
Just picked
From a pregnant tree

You're like a gift
Like soul manifest
In the form of a man
So exquisite
It makes me tingle all over
You're like a prayer
I saved inside of me
Because it seemed To be
Too much to ask
Or even to hope for You're like Mother Nature's Wild abundant healing herbs
And flowers and fresh food
SOS
For the sick
And starving
And a long
Long awaited rest
And relief
For the so weary souls
Struggling in silent search
For a spot to call home
For a minute
To lay their life
And load
For a needed reprieve
Oh My God
Man
You're surely like the sun came out
You're like the sun came out!
